

Computer Science and Engineering Graduate Student Seminar Series Fall 2009

The Graduate Student Seminar Series was created by graduate students, for graduate students, to promote a sense of community across the department. Stop by and listen to a short talk (20-30 minutes) by a fellow graduate student on their research while enjoying a free lunch. Talks this semester include:

Pseudo Signatures: A Better Biometric?

Jin Chen – October 9th

Whole-Book Recognition

Pingping Xiu – October 16th

Finding Bugs in Exceptional Situations of JNI Programs

Siliang Li – October 23rd

Interactive Segmentation Based on Graph Models

Yaoyao Zhu – October 30th

Exploring and Understanding Social Media

Liangjie Hong – November 6th

Controller Development for a Smart Wheelchair System

Sam Kirkpatrick – November 13th

Packard Lab, Room 360, Fridays 12:00-1:00 PM

Free Pizza and Refreshments

Open to all CSE Graduate Students & Faculty

Contact Tim Perkins for more details (tim.perkins@lehigh.edu)

LEHIGH
UNIVERSITY.