FEATURING THE DELUXE M.S. LE DIAMANT

APRIL 7 TO 15, 2009

LEHIGH

ALUMNI TRAVEL

Dear Alumni & Friends:

The Canary Islands and Madeira, born of subterranean volcanic activity and sculpted by the elemental forces of wind and water, rise mysteriously above the azure waters of the North Atlantic. Ancient seafarers regarded these remote outposts as remnants of the lost continent of Atlantis or the Fortunate Isles, whose inhabitants lived in a state of perpetual bliss.

Join us for this exclusive seven-night cruise aboard the deluxe, fully chartered M.S. LE DIAMANT on a voyage of discovery along sea routes once plied by Phoenician triremes and Roman galleys. Sail through the sun-washed Canary Islands to the verdant isle of Madeira, the fabled coast of Morocco and the fortress-like bastion of Gibraltar. Pass scenes that inspired painters; gaze into a 6,000-foot-deep abyss, its walls and floor richly carpeted with lush subtropical vegetation; savor the heady wines of Madeira; and admire the contrast of ancient and modern in Morocco, while exploring the cosmopolitan city of Casablanca and the medieval lanes and Kasbahs of Rabat.

This unique travel program provides exclusive guided tours of the monuments of three dynamic, yet ancient, societies—Spain, Portugal and Morocco—and the opportunity to enjoy the incomparable natural beauty of the Atlantic's remote Canary Islands. You can further explore the historic and cultural treasures of Spain on the three-night Madrid Pre-Program Option or the three-night Granada and Seville Post-Program Option.

Come travel with us on this distinctive Atlantic cruise that traces the routes of ancient voyagers and medieval explorers. Capacity is limited and this exceptional travel value is certain to sell out quickly, so we urge you to make your reservation before September 17, 2008, while Early Booking Savings are still available. We look forward to hearing from you soon!

Sincerely,

Robert W. Wolfenden
Director, Alumni Travel Program

LAS PALMAS, GRAN CANARIA

Wednesday, April 8

Arrive in Las Palmas, an attractive city founded by Spanish conquistadors in 1478. Meet your Travel Directors, transfer to the pier and embark M.S. LE DIAMANT.

SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE, TENERIFE

Thursday, April 9

The ancient Guanche people, the original inhabitants of the Canary Archipelago, gave the name Tenerife—"White Mountain"—to this dramatically scenic island, dominated by the soaring, 12,195-foot-high pinnacle of Pico del Teide. Begin your day with a drive through the cool, verdant forests of La Esperanza to the UNESCO World Heritage site of Parque Nacional del Teide, a starkly beautiful wilderness of mineral-tinted rock, ancient lava flows and distinctive vegetation found nowhere else. Gaze across the sand and lava rock floor of the vast caldera of Las Cañadas to the snowy summit of Pico del Teide, Spain's loftiest mountain, and enjoy a panoramic view of the Roques de Garcia, 500-foot-high rocks shaped by the erosive forces of wind and water.

This afternoon, visit the UNESCO World Heritage site of La Laguna, a beautiful university town established in 1496; the houses of the old quarter date from the 16th and 17th centuries and have preserved their wooden balconies and ornate doorways crowned with family crests.

Join your traveling companions for the captain's welcome reception this evening.

SANTA CRUZ DE LA PALMA, LA PALMA

Friday, April 10

Known as La Isla Bonita, "the Pretty Isle," for its lushly forested mountain slopes set against a backdrop of bright blue skies and the azure waters of the Atlantic Ocean, La Palma holds an abundance of cultural and natural treasures. This morning, drive through the old quarter of Santa Cruz, once the third-largest port in the Spanish Empire, to the pilgrimage center of Las Nieves to visit the shrine of La Virgen de las Nieves

Red-roofed houses and russet-hued rock reflect the harmony of architecture and nature in Camara de Lobos, Madeira.

The red-tiled roofs, whitewashed walls and cobblestone streets of Funchal are evidence of its six-centuries-long ties with mainland Portugal.

(Madonna of the Snow), the island's patron saint. This mid-17th-century church represents a unique fusion of Baroque and Mudéjar (Spanish-Moorish) architecture; on its gilt altar stands a medieval Flemish statue of the Madonna atop a base of pure silver.

The scenic overlook of Mirador la Concepción offers sweeping vistas of Santa Cruz, while the Mirador la Cumbrecita provides a window on La Palma's geologic past, with dramatic views of the Caldera de Taburiente, a wide chasm sheltering a profusion of trees and shrubs, many of them unique to the island. Return to the ship for a late lunch and spend the remainder of the day at sea.

FUNCHAL, MADEIRA, PORTUGAL Saturday, April 11

First settled by the Portuguese in 1418, enchanting Madeira's striking scenery, floral variety and year-round equable climate have made it a subtropical paradise. Dock in Funchal, the island's capital, which has the feeling of an open-air museum with its wealth of 15th- through 18th-century architecture. Visit the bustling market, where vendors of fresh produce, flowers and seafood engage in lively banter with their customers.

In the picturesque hillside village of Monte, board a two-seater toboggan for an exhilarating downslope ride through narrow, winding streets to Funchal. Mounted on wooden runners, the toboggans are steered by brakemen in traditional attire.

This afternoon, head west along Madeira's rugged southern coast past Camara de Lobos, a fishing village once portrayed on canvas by Sir Winston Churchill. From Cabo Girão, the world's second-highest sea cliff, and the overlook of Eira do Serrado, pause for sweeping vistas of the island, including a view of Curral das Freiras (Refuge of the Nuns), where sisters from the Convent of Santa Clara sought refuge from pirates in the 16th century. Before reboarding the ship, stop at the Old Blandy Wine Lodge for a special tasting of Madeira's legendary namesake wine, prized by connoisseurs around the world.

CRUISING THE ATLANTIC OCEAN Sunday, April 12

Spend a relaxing day aboard M.S. LE DIAMANT.

CASABLANCA, MOROCCO/RABAT Monday, April 13

Arrive this morning in Casablanca, a harmonious blend of French and North African culture and architecture and Morocco's largest city and commercial center. Drive north along the fashionable, oceanfront Boulevard de la Corniche, with stunning Atlantic views on one side and inviting cafés and restaurants on the other. Continue from Casablanca to Rabat, Morocco's political capital, which was founded by the Almohad Dynasty in 1146 and is one of the nation's four Imperial Cities.

View Rabat's best-known landmark, the Hassan Tower, a monument of intricately carved stone and the remnant of a late 12th-century mosque that was planned but never completed. Stroll through the narrow streets and bustling souks of the enchanting Medina (Old City). And, visit the Kasbah of the Oudayas, a fortified 12th-century quarter of narrow alleys and traditional white-washed houses built atop a cliff overlooking the Atlantic Ocean and the neighboring town of Sale, once the haven of the fabled Barbary pirates.

colonies. During World War II, this strategic outpost played a crucial role in Operation Torch, the Allied campaign to liberate North Africa.

Enjoy a scenic view from Europa Point and walk past the impressive stalactites and stalagmites of St. Michael's Cave, a vast natural cavern. Drive to "the Top of the Rock," the 1,400-foot-high limestone promontory guarding the strait that separates Europe and Africa, for a panoramic vista, and observe the amusing antics of Gibraltar's Barbary Apes, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe. Conclude your tour with a visit to the Great Siege Tunnels, excavated by British army engineers in the late 18th century to provide for the defense of the colony.

Join your traveling companions this evening for the captain's farewell reception.
